PROTECTION OF LABOR

The Republican party has always testing these who must live by their ity by removing the tariff. labor. The measer to American free labor, since the abolition of slavery in the southern states, has been the cheap subservient labor of other countries. To perudt the products of such labor to enter our markets to competition with the products of home labor was equivalent to the impoverishment of American labor, The Republican party adopted the theory that American labor must be proper ly paid or it would become as dependent on the invora of the rich and as subservious to conditions as the cheap labor or uldercoentries: As fair wages could not be paid Amerirana unless the products of their laber could be sold in American markets higher than the products of foreign labor a tariff was placed upor the products of foreign labor seeking sale in this country. That gave to American manufacturers a home market in which they could dispose of their products at fair prices, and thus enable them to pay fair wages. Under the protective system American mantacturets have tiourished and American waste earners have become the most prosperous, and the most independent in the world.

Protection of American industries. products and labor is the established, time honored policy of the Republican party. Those who assail that policy are lighting the battle of forigners, not the cause of Americans. Several times the Democratic party bus let down the bars erected by the Republican party against foreign commerce and each time our country has suffered from lower wages. cheap products and the cheapest living intelligent people could be subsected to. Each time lands decreased in value, factories were stopped or run on a limited scale, farmers could not realize tair prices for their crops and the capital of thrity communities was hoarded in banks or sacrificed in undertakins.--Press unprofitable Bureau.
